

Offer by Latvia to host the ECSC 2017

Latvian Society for Chess Composition is honoured to propose to hold the 13th European Chess Solving Championship 2017 in Riga, Latvia.

Dates: Friday 12th May – Sunday 14th May, 2017

Location: city of Riga, the capital of Latvia

Latvia is a fully integrated EU member state, participating in Schengen agreements and Euro zone, with excellent security track record.

Riga airport (RIX) is extremely well connected to most major European cities by many low cost airlines. Air fares in May are expected to be on the off-season side.

Latvia has a successful experience of organizing WCCC in Jūrmala in 2008.

Venue: Radisson Blu Daugava Hotel

A four-star hotel on the shores of Daugava overlooking the beautiful city skyline.

Organizers: active and industrious members of LPŠB and international chess problem community:

- Ilja Ketris
- Julia Vysotska

Activities within ECSC

- ECSC, 1st and 2nd day
- Open Solving Tournament
- Solving Show
- Thematic composing tournament

Prices

Accommodation

- €70 per person in a single room
- €37 per person in a double room
- €30 per person in a triple room

These prices will be available for ECSC participants only by an arrangement with the hotel, which has been already secured.

Prices include:

- rich buffet breakfast
- fast WiFi Internet throughout hotel
- SPA pool and gym access

Participation fee

The fee is €45. It covers participation in all ECSC activities.

Radisson BLU
DAUGAVA HOTEL, RIGA

Kuģu iela 24, Riga, LV-1048, Latvia
<http://www.radissonblu.com/hotelriga>
Phone: +371 6706 1111

Located on the Daugava River in the Old City district of Riga, this hotel is just a short walk away from embassies and businesses and only 15 minutes from the airport. Guests enjoy easy access to cultural attractions such as the Town Hall, Riga Dome Cathedral, Art Museum "Riga Bourse" and Presidential Castle. The 356 rooms and suites include amenities like the Super Breakfast Buffet and Free highspeed, wireless Internet. Enjoy beautiful Daugava River views and delicious international cuisine at Panorama Restaurant. Guests appreciate complimentary access to the fitness center, 24meter indoor pool and sauna, and can indulge in relaxing treatments at the SPA Salon Aleksandra.